

Privacy Policy — Balalayka

Last updated: 2026

Balalayka ("the App") is a communication and productivity application that allows users to exchange messages, share files, and organize tasks. This Privacy Policy explains what information we collect, how we use it, and what rights users have regarding their data.

Information We Collect

We may collect the following types of information:

Account Information - name or username - email address - authentication data (including Sign in with Apple)

Content Data - messages sent within the app - files, images, and other media shared by users - tasks or notes created from messages

Technical Information - device type - operating system - IP address - app usage information necessary for maintaining the service

How We Use Information

The collected information is used to:

- create and manage user accounts
- enable messaging and collaboration features
- store and synchronize messages and files
- provide search across conversations
- maintain security and prevent abuse
- improve the performance and reliability of the app

We do not sell personal data to third parties.

Data Storage and Security

User data is stored on secure servers and protected using standard industry security practices. Access to data is restricted and monitored to protect user information.

Data Sharing

We may share data only in the following cases:

- when required to operate the service (for example hosting or infrastructure providers)
- when required by law

We do not share personal data for advertising purposes.

User Rights

Users may request:

- access to their stored information
- correction of account information
- deletion of their account and associated data

Requests can be submitted using the contact email below.

Sign in with Apple

Balalayka supports Sign in with Apple as an authentication method. When this method is used, Apple may provide a private relay email address instead of the user's real email.

Children's Privacy

Balalayka is not intended for children under the age of 13. We do not knowingly collect personal data from children.

Changes to This Policy

This Privacy Policy may be updated from time to time. Updates will be reflected by the "Last updated" date at the top of this document.
